Compliance with GDPR

The safety and protection of personal data is a top priority at the European Research University and across the entire PRIGO group. As part of our commitment, we have developed a detailed directive outlining the measures we have implemented to safeguard the personal data of our students and employees. This directive is available to you in printed form at the Rector's Office of the University.

For further information or any inquiries, please contact our General Data Protection Officer, Ms. Tereza Adamčíková, at +420 734 151 725 or via email at zrizovatel@prigo.cz.

We have summarised our approach to personal data protection in the following Ten Principles of GDPR Compliance:

- 1. Minimisation
We process only the personal data that is essential to meet legal requirements and ensure the smooth operation of our organisation.
- 2. Accuracy
In collaboration with you, we update personal data to ensure that we always have current and accurate information.
- 3. Retention Limitation
Personal data is archived only for the necessary period (as required by law or your consent), after which it is securely deleted.
- 4. Non-Transferability
Except where required by law, we do not share your personal data with third parties without your consent.
- 5. Documentation
We maintain detailed records of processing activities to ensure full oversight of how your personal data is handled.
- 6. Security
We have implemented technical and organisational measures to protect your personal data from unauthorised or unlawful processing, as well as from damage, loss, or destruction.
- 7. Transparency
We are transparent about the methods we use to protect your personal data and expect the same from our business partners. We only collaborate with partners who ensure the safety of your data.
