

10 October 2024

Outcome of Teaching Centre Committee Application Review

I am delighted to inform you that following the formal review of your application by the University of London Teaching Centre Committee on 9 October 2024, the committee has endorsed the recommendation to award Recognised Teaching Centre Status to the European Research University.

Institution receiving UoL recognition	Programmes received approval for
European Research University - Czech Republic	BSc Business Administration , inclusive of the following pathways. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Business Administration – General pathway• Business Administration - Human Resource Management pathway• Business Administration - International Business pathway• Business Administration – Marketing pathway

The Quality Assurance team will be in touch shortly to gather the required information needed to finalise the Teaching Centre Recognition Framework agreement. Following this your designated Senior Business Support Manager will be in touch to organise your onboarding as a Recognised Teaching Centre, and a Certificate of Recognition will be emailed to your institution confirming the institution's status.

As a Recognised Teaching Centre, you are part of an exclusive group of institutions around the world that enjoy a close relationship with the University of London. This collaboration involves both of our organisations working closely together in order to benefit our students by enriching their learning experience.

We look forward to continuing an exciting and mutually positive relationship over the coming years.

Yours sincerely,

Peter O'Hara

Associate Director New Business

University of London Worldwide

Stewart House | 32 Russell Square | London WC1B 5DN | United Kingdom